President Reports to Congress Today
on Sea ConferenceSays Declaration of Principles Arrived at Are Clear Cut

Washington, Aug. 21—(AP)—President Roosevelt, reporting to congress on his epochal meeting at sea with Prime Minister Churchill, said today the declaration of principles agreed upon there were so clear cut that they would be difficult to oppose "without automatically admitting a willingness to accept compromise" with nazism.

These principles, the president added in a brief special message, also would be hard to oppose without admitting a willingness to "agree to a world peace which would give to nazism domination over large numbers of conquered nations."

"Inevitably," Roosevelt asserted, "such a peace would be a gift to nazism to take breath—armed breath—for a second war to extend the control over Europe and Asia to the American hemisphere itself."

Roosevelt said it was perhaps unnecessary to "call attention once more to the utter lack of validity of the spoken or written word of the nazi government."

He added that it also was unnecessary to point out that the declaration included of necessity "the world need for freedom of religion and freedom of information."

He said: "No society of the world organized under the announced principles could survive without these freedoms which are a part of the whole freedom for which we strive."

Ignored Charges
Since the joint declaration, congressional critics of the administration's foreign policy have charged that the president and Churchill reached an offensive and defensive alliance, basing their case in part on the fact that the declaration gave as a prelude to the desired peace destruction of "the nazi tyranny."

Roosevelt ignored this in his message as he did also charges from the same sources that he violated the constitution by having such a meeting in dangerous waters aboard a belligerent warship. One of the meetings was on the British battleship Prince of Wales, others aboard the American cruiser Augusta.

The president told congress that because of the factor of safety to British, Canadian and American ships and their personnel "no prior announcement of these meetings could properly be made." This was believed to be the first official announcement that Canadian ships were present at the conference scene.

Comment on Report
Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and LaFollette (Prog-Wis) said the message added little to the original announcement of the eight point agreement. La Folllette added:

"The president obviously took note of criticism by reinstating for the United States the two freedoms that were lost at sea—freedom of religion and freedom of information. But he does not say whether Churchill and Joe Stalin are going to put them back. "I am greatly disappointed that neither the congress nor the country have been given any information as to what commitments were made to carry out

Attorney General
Barrett Speaker
At Fair Opening

The greatest exhibition of live stock in Lee county's history will be viewed by thousands of patrons of the Lee County Fair and Horse Show at Assembly park Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Entries overflowed the space and pens provided for the exhibitors today and it was necessary to set up an additional huge tent to care for the overflow.

Beginning at an early hour this morning trucks began hauling show stock to the park, where it is being groomed for display. Concessions were arriving today and setting up their tents along the newly-located midway. Every department of the fair according to reports of the superintendents will present a greater number of displays this season than ever before.

The fair will be officially opened Friday afternoon when Attorney General George F. Barrett of Chicago will give an address. The music for the Friday and Saturday fairs will be furnished by the Ambrose township high school under the direction of Prof. Jack Swartz.

Experience

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—State Auditor Arthur C. Lueder, who formerly for 12 years was U. S. postmaster at Chicago, has made use of his post office experience to deprive the federal government of approximately $4,200 annually and chalk the sum up as a saving for the state.

The saving device, Lueder said, is simple. By mailing some 50,000 old age assistance checks monthly to Cook county recipients from his Chicago office, the auditor's office can use two-cent stamps on the envelopes containing Chicago recipients' checks. If all checks were mailed from Springfield, the Chicago mail would require three-cent stamps.

Lueder said the saving from Chicago mailings of relief checks for that city amounts to approximately $350 a month.

Lee County FFA
Boys to Receive
Trophies at Fair

Future Farmers of America, from chapters in the high schools of Lee county, are to be given special recognition during the program of the Lee County Fair & Horse Show which opens here at Assembly park tomorrow.

Champions in five divisions and the runnersup are to be awarded plaques and trophies for their outstanding achievements in farming in 1940. The winners were selected by a committee of the five agriculture teachers of the Lee county high schools on a score card basis.

In the beef class Melvin Brucker of Franklin Grove was awarded the championship and runnersup are William Thier of Amboy and Gerald Scherer of Franklin Grove.

Ralph Salzman of Ashton who has 62 head of purebred Hampshire sheep is champion of the sheep class with George Harms of Dixon who has 32 head of Shropshires and Donald Schafer of Ashton as the runnersup.

Dairy Cattle Champion
Dairy cattle champion is Ralph Meyers of Amboy with Donald Schafer of Ashton and Leslie Bothe of Amboy as runnersup.

Wallace Karper of Franklin Grove took the honors in the swine-raising class with Laurence Clayton of Lee Center and Ivan Hullah of Franklin Grove as runnersup.

Those awarded honors in the "all-around" class were selected by the committee on the basis of scholarship, leadership, judging and project work. Champion in this class is Ralph Meyers of Amboy with Donald Schafer of Ashton and Leslie Bothe of Amboy also among the trophy-winners.

Money for the plaques and medals to be presented at the fair was given by the Borden Condensery, Amboy Condensory, Lee County Grain association, Rock River Production Credit association and the agriculture committee of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce.

Annual Report
Lee county's F. F. A. boys have a combined valuation of crop and livestock set at $28,235 for 1940, according to the annual report for the year. This total was made on the basis of low pork prices last year and would probably ex-

Paradise, Mont. Aug. 21—(AP)—Bob Hensley, 18, who started out for Spokane from Plains with $6 and decided to keep on going, was back today after making a 16,000-mile tour of the United States.

Returning with $3 of his original capital after visiting 38 states, Bob said his best hitch-hiking average was on Fifth avenue in New York City, "where I got a ride the first time I raised my thumb".

Spy Detected With Army in Southwestern Washington Through Shoes

With the Army in Southwest Washington, Aug. 21—(AP)—Dressed as a farmer to spy out enemy positions, an army private was detected by his regulation shoes.

Private Roy W. Noye of Kan-kakee, Ill., was assigned to scout patrol duty in the west coast maneuvers shortly after his arrival from Fort Ord, Calif. He decided on a lone wolf espionage mission.

Disguising himself as a farmer, the mild-mannered little rookie penetrated enemy lines and fairly bulged with information when he was captured just as he started to return toward his own lines last night.

"I found some old overalls, slipped into a barn and put them on," he explained. "I surely must have looked like a hayseed because I passed one military policeman after another without being stopped."

Detroit Strike

BULLETIN
Detroit, Aug. 21—(AP)—Indications that "break" was imminent in a jurisdictional dispute that has tied up this city's municipally owned transportation system was voiced today by a state labor mediator.

Shortly before resumption of conferences seeking settlement of the strike called by the Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Operators (AFL), Thomas J. Donahue, chairman of the Michigan labor mediation board, declared:

"There are signs of a break". He did not elaborate.

A second conference with Federal Shipbuilding & Drydock Company officials was scheduled by President Roosevelt for 3 p. m. (CST) today in an effort to end the two weeks old strike at the company's Kearny, N. J., plant.

The chief executive conferred this morning with L. H. Korn-dorff, president of the company, and Myron C. Taylor, former board chairman of the U. S. Steel Corporation, parent firm, and these two later went to the navy department to meet Navy Secretary Knox, Sidney Hillman, OPM Associate Director, and William H. Davis, chairman of the Defense Mediation Board.

Detroit Mayor Acts
Mayor Edward J. Jeffries of Detroit called for further conferences today with leaders of the two transit unions in an effort to restore service on municipally-operated street car and bus lines.

Negotiations which ended shortly after midnight apparently were unproductive and the situation seemed deadlocked.

The AFL organization demands the right to act as sole bargaining agent for employees of the department of street railways. A CIO union, the State, County and Municipal Workers of America, has contested the demand. Jeffries has taken the position that the AFL is in effect demanding a closed shop, and threatened to "call upon the might of government" to end the tie-up.

Anti-U. S. Campaign
In China Mounting

Shanghai, Aug. 21—(AP)—An anti-American campaign, purported to be inspired and directed by Japanese military authorities appeared today to be growing throughout occupied China as a result of the recent United States freezing of assets.

Reports from numerous points in central and south China indicate that more than 1,700 Americans are facing increasingly difficult living conditions because of restrictions imposed by the military. British citizens also were affected in some areas, but not as badly as Americans.

Many of those feeling the blunt of the campaign are missionaries. One Swedish correspondent for American and British newspapers has been expelled from Hankow and two British correspondents have been told to leave. All Anglo-American press activities were halted summarily by the Japanese military at Hankow.

End of Exemptions
in Income Tax Law
Accountants' PlanAlso Suggest Income Taxes Be Collected at Their Source

Washington, Aug. 21—(AP)—A recommendation that congress wipe out completely all tax exemptions on personal incomes was laid before the senate finance committee today by Walter A. M. Cooper, chairman of the American Institute of Accountants.

Present exemptions are $2,000 for married persons and $800 for single individuals. The treasury has recommended a reduction to $1,000 and $750 respectively.

In a prepared statement, Cooper also urged that normal income taxes be withheld at the source on all payments of salaries, dividends, interest "and other fixed or determinable income". Social security taxes now are collected in a similar manner.

The recommendations, Cooper said, were based on five considerations:

1. The federal government originally set up the income tax "to add a little 'gravy' to the federal revenue." Now, however, the levy is the government's chief revenue producer.
2. "Our defense is being developed to protect the right of everyone to live and to earn any income whatsoever and there is no reason why every person in the United States should not contribute a share of that burden, proportionate to the amount of income, if any."
3. "The imposition of tax on all incomes without exemption would tend to prevent inflation of prices and probably would be more helpful in accomplishing the desired result in that respect than anything heretofore suggested."

Collection Simple
4. "The collection at the source would x x x make the problem of collection simpler than it is today, x x x"

5. Elimination of exemption would produce a very substantial amount of revenue."

In another field of taxation, the Distilled Spirits Institute told the finance committee in a prepared statement that taxes on distilled spirits had been increased 273 per cent since repeal and "can be raised to the point where legal sales and public revenues will suffer alike to the benefit of the

Now What?

New York, Aug. 21—(AP)—A clarion call to American women to "cut skirt lengths several inches" was issued today by the National Women's Undergarment Manufacturers Association.

The members of the association indicated they would cooperate by shortening up on their own specialties, just how, they didn't say.

Helen Forrist Hall, Associated Press fashion expert, raised her eyebrows when informed of the action.

"Skirt hems," she said, "already are slapping at our knees. Now what?"

6,000 Arrested in
Nazi-Held France

Vichy, France, Aug. 21—(AP)—Police were reported today to have arrested 6,000 persons in German-occupied France.

Most of those arrested in the great roundup, apparently aimed at striking at the sources of growing public unrest in the city, were described as Jews.

At the same time it was learned that two men had been executed by a firing squad for alleged participation in a communist manifestation against German occupation authorities.

Both German and French police were reported to have taken part in the arrests, stopping all on the streets, conducting house to house searches and going through identity papers.

Those arrested included everybody who could not show he was an aryan.

The surprise move followed unrest and firing in the streets as well as public admissions by French and German authorities that sabotage and subversive activities in the conquered capital were reaching dangerous proportions.

At the same time bids will be opened for the building of 2.34 miles of 22 foot gravel or crushed stone surfacing on the Lowden road from route 64 east of Oregon, south to Daysville.

Under improvements under the motor fuel tax funds, the division has approved the construction of .053 mile of 18 foot concrete pave-

War Only Begun
Official Russian
Spokesman Says

The War Today!

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Telegraph Special Service)

Those trying to figure out the probable duration of the European war (and who isn't?) must find special interest in President Roosevelt's assertion that the conflict will continue through 1943, if necessary, and that Britain and the United States will make a survey of needs and production through that year.

F. D. R. of course wasn't in any way forecasting the length of the war. However, we are justified in concluding that he and British Premier Churchill believe it may be a protracted one, for if it goes through 1943 it will be more than four years old—and that's a mighty long time when you're talking about mechanized hell.

There's a far reach, though, between four years and the estimate of Virginia Gayda, authoritative fascist editor who frequently voices Mussolini's views. In discussing the Roosevelt-Churchill war-aim of "final destruction of nazi tyranny," Signor Gayda declares that "if the proposal were maintained the World war would have to last ten years or longer."

It's humanly possible that the war might run for ten years—or for forty. But that's not the probability, according to the figures in my books. War isn't merely a question of marching men who are willing to die, and big guns. When the smoke of battle begins to lift, the economic fellows get their in-ings in the matter of the resources of the belligerents.

Signor Gayda is a keen analyst—when he wants to be—and I'd bet all of a silver aspen that he believes in his heart the axis isn't likely to win at all, unless it's able to break through the British blockade to fresh supplies—supplies not only for itself but for the whole of Europe. I've raised that point in this column numerous times before, but it's worth repeating because Britain is placing its main reliance on that blockade to win the war.

Europe is far from self-contained. It can't carry on indefinitely without access to outside supplies. It can't even feed itself and wage war at the same time.

Despite Herr Hitler's best efforts to crack the blockade and he came close to success at one time early this year—the continent has been slipping further into the slough. Quite apart from war essentials such as oil, there is actual hunger in many countries.

The chief leak in the British blockade was via Siberia and across Russia to Germany. The soviet itself also provided Hitler with considerable amounts of wheat, oil and other necessities.

With the invasion of Russia, however, the fuhrer in effect fortified the British blockade at its weakest point, and at the same time erected a further barrier against himself by cutting off soviet supplies. He undoubtedly hoped to secure necessities by a lightning conquest, but expectations of speedy relief have receded because of the fierce bolshevik resistance.

Hitler may still sweep through the rich Ukraine and on into the oil fields in Caucasia. His war machine is forging ahead, as is recorded in today's reports from the Russian theater. Still, instead of a quick victory and filled storehouses, he appeared to be headed for a war of attrition which will further deplete his present supplies.

British Ambassador Lord Halifax summed the position up rather

Automobile Output
For Quarter Lower
By 26.5 Per Cent

Washington, Aug. 21—(AP)—The Office of Production Management announced today that passenger car production will be curtailed 26½ per cent during August, September and October.

The curtailment will be progressively greater in subsequent months, officials said, with the expectancy of a 50 per cent curtailment for the model year ending July 31, 1942.

The production quotas were formulated by the OPM and the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply.

A substantial increase must be made in motor truck production, officials said, in order to meet vital transportation and military needs.

The larger companies—General Motors, Chrysler and Ford—will make a reduction of 27.6 per cent while the other companies, Studebaker, Hudson, Nash, Packard, Willys-Overland and Crosley will cut 20.2 per cent.

Each Side Claims
Heavy Losses
for Foes

(By The Associated Press)

An official Russian claim late today listed German losses at nearly 2,000,000 killed and wounded in the two months old conflict on the eastern front, even as German troops storming toward Leningrad from the south were reported to be within 13 miles of the old czarist capital.

Adolf Hitler's high command reported that German columns had snatched three main bulwarks of Leningrad's outer defense system.

Despite severe reverses at both ends of the 1,500 mile battlefield from Karelia to the Black sea, soviet official spokesman S. S. Lozovsky declared in Moscow:

"There is no alarm, or pessimism in our ranks. Even Hitler and his advisors understand that the war in the east has only begun."

Total Red army losses of 5,000,000 men in the 61-day-old struggle were claimed by the Germans, including 1,200,000 prisoners. DNB, the official German news agency, said conquered soviet territory exceeded 355,000 square miles—an area greater than the entire German reich and its newly incorporated territories east and west.

Many Bombers Over Germany

DNB also distributed a statement re-emphasizing that the war with Russia was being waged "to gain preconditions for the final struggle with Great Britain" and insisting that aerial blows against the British Isles had not been weakened.

In London, a high British authority said RAF raids in the last eight weeks had placed far more bombers over Germany in a single night than the Germans sent over Britain in the most violent assaults last autumn and winter.

Challenging an official Russian order for a fight to defend Leningrad to the death, the Berlin radio declared that if the city were defended it would suffer the "rate of Warsaw, which was largely destroyed by nazi stukas and siege guns when the Poles refused to surrender."

The Red army northwest command admitted that Leningrad was under "direct threat of attack," but the Russians expressed confidence that the city's defenses—with an estimated garrison of 1,600,000 men—would hold.

Report Odessa Aflame
On the southern front, Russia's great Black sea port of Odessa was reported aflame, blasted by German artillery and stuka dive-bombers.

The German high command reported that nazi troops storming toward Leningrad from the south had captured the ancient walled city of Novgorod, 100 miles below Leningrad, in bitter fighting against the Red army defenders. It also announced the capture of Narva, 81 miles southwest of Leningrad, and Kingisepp, the rail gate to Leningrad, six miles farther east.

The local grade school will open its doors for the fall session on Tuesday, September second with one of the largest enrollments of recent years. Regular classes will be held the first day of school and the school will carry through its full schedule of classes. All pupils will be required to have their books prior to the opening of school. As announced last week, the school is open every week day from nine until five so that parents and pupils may make all necessary arrangements relative to the securing of their books. It is urged that all arrangements be made early to avoid a last minute rush.

The Board of Education has employed Miss Lorene Burson of Plano, Illinois, to teach the pupils of the third grade for the coming year. Miss Burson graduated from the State Teachers' college at DeKalb in 1939 and has been employed in the Genoa, Illinois public school since that time. Miss Burson was selected from a large list of applicants which included teachers from six states. The teachers' committee and school principal have been almost continuously in session during the past week working on this problem. Miss Burson will assume the teaching duties of Miss Ruth Berry whose recent death shocked the entire community.

The opening of school finds many new improvements made during the summer months. Among the most important of these improvements is the cementing of the bicycle parking area just northeast of the school building. This improvement adds tremendously to the appearance of the building and grounds. Other improvements include the addition of several needed pieces of equipment for the manual training shop which includes a lathe, jig-saw, circular saw and planer. The addition of new sewing tables and cabinets in the domestic science will add greatly to the efficiency of this department.

Due to the abandonment of the social science curriculum for the junior high school it was necessary to make several changes in textbooks throughout the grades.

The books changed have been placed on a rental basis greatly reducing the financial outlay for parents. In addition to changes in social science subjects, namely: history, geography and civics, the board has continued their plan of improving the use of all the new Elson books in the first two grades.

The complete list of teachers for the coming year is as follows: First grade: Miss Kathleen Peugh, Coleta, Illinois; second grade: Miss Rose Neely of Seward, Illinois; third grade: Miss Lorene Burson, Plano, Illinois; fourth grade: Miss Jane Wingard, Mt. Morris; fifth grade: Cecil Williams, Mt. Morris; junior high school teachers are as follows: Miss Thelma Mott, Pontiac, Illinois; sixth grade home room and English, reading and spelling: Miss Virgil Turner of Ridott, Illinois; seventh grade home room, geography, general science, home economics and girls' physical education: John Yeakel, who comes to us this year from the Kewanee, Illinois, Central junior high school will have charge of the eighth grade home room and will teach manual arts, seventh and eighth, physical education, seventh and eighth, health, sixth, seventh, eighth, history sixth and assistant coach; Miss Helen Miller of Moline, Illinois to teach music and art in all grades; Mrs. Beth Amstutz, instrumental music; Harold Patterson, history, seventh and eighth, civics, eighth, physical education, sixth, athletic director and superintendent.

French Envoy Seeks To Placate American Annoyance With Vichy

Washington, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Gaston Henry-Haye, the French ambassador, has sought as assuage American displeasure with Vichy's collaboration with Germany and also laid before Secretary of State Hull a collection of American newspaper cartoons which he said were insulting to Marshall Petain, chief of state at Vichy.

The ambassador told newspapermen he had explained in a call on Hull that there was nothing in Petain's recent speech on Europe's future which would bear out fears expressed in this country that France intended to turn the French fleet or French colonial possessions over to Germany.

The cartoon collection was exhibited, Henry-Haye said, "because their publication is not helpful in maintaining the friendly relations that have existed for 160 years between the United States and France." He added: "I know the American press is free, but it is because it is free that it should show restraint and not publish these cartoons insulting to the chief of the French state, a man much too high to be touched by anything of that kind."

Color Photography is Used to Help Growers of Fruit Select Crop

Davis, Calif., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Color photography is helping experts determine just when and how to pick, store and ship fruit.

Several crates of plums or pears are picked at a given stage of ripeness and photographed. Loaded into refrigerator cars, some are put in the warmest place, others in the coldest place available. Temperatures are recorded automatically all the way across the continent.

On arrival in New York the fruit is photographed again, giving a record of what happened to the color en route.

The experiment is expected to enable growers to select the proper degree of ripeness for picking and the best temperature for shipping.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Neutral Diplomat Says Port of Hamburg Badly Smashed by the RAF

London, Aug. 21 —(AP)—A neutral-diplomat here said the important German port of Hamburg which he left a fortnight ago had taken "such a smashing from the RAF that its people were consoling themselves by saying 'well, it's not as bad here as it is in Bremen.'"

"From the central railway station to town hall," he asserted, "a street of eight or nine-story buildings — Monckebergstrasse — has been laid in ruins and closed to traffic for days at a time."

The diplomat said no eastbound rail traffic had been able to move out of the station and eastbound terminus facilities had been moved to an old suburban depot which had been closed for 30 years.

A Thought For Today

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.—Psalms 30:5.

"Good morning" . . . spreads the morning's glory over the livelong day.—Charlotte Perry.

Hospitalization Insurance

While Dixon and its celebrated guests honor the men and women who have made our magnificent new hospital possible, we are apt to overlook one of the greatest contributing factors to the growth of hospital facilities throughout the country.

That is the growing popularity of hospitalization and surgical expense insurance—this typically American method of making it possible for the man of limited means to pay his own way. A large part of the increased use of hospital facilities, says the American Hospital Association, is due to the fact that a far greater proportion of the American public can now pay for hospitalization and surgical attention, and therefore does not delay or forego a necessary operation because of the cost.

It is one of the tragedies of charity hospitalization that persons applying for aid have in many cases delayed or postponed medical or surgical attention until pain or the gravity of their condition has forced them to swallow their pride and apply for charity. And in many cases this attention has come too late, or crowded conditions of charity hospitals have made prompt or adequate attention impossible.

And so, the great American insurance companies who have made it possible to buy hospitalization and surgical expense protection for a few pennies a day are deserving of a share in the honor Dixon and its guests pay to those who have made its hospital possible.

A stay in the hospital isn't necessarily an ordeal. What with pretty nurses flitting in to wait on you, friends dropping in to see you and being able to lie in bed in the morning, you can have a very good time.

The one thing that is apt to spoil your fun is worry. Worries such as these: Where's the money to pay the doctor's, hospital and nursing bills going to come from? How long can the family keep going without any income? Suppose I should never be able to go back to work again; how could we get along?

"We can't guarantee you a pretty nurse, but we can assure you freedom from these money worries. Recovery from an accidental injury when protected by accident insurance is like traveling on an expense account. You get the best of service—and someone else pays the bills.

SERIAL STORY

SECRET VOYAGE

BY JOSEPH L. CHADWICK

COPYRIGHT 1941,
NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Jim Mallory and Curly Bates decide the only way to get into the hold of the Sonora is to blast. After setting off a dynamite charge, Curly goes below and reports the forward hold is empty. A boat has been sighted in the distance the night before, and Jim decides not to call the Coast Guard but to maintain a double watch. The following day another boat is sighted. It is Jeffery Hammond's yacht. Jim goes aboard her and finds Jeffery Hammond, Lois Hammond and Mary Larsen. Hammond asks if he has had any luck, and Jim replies "No luck at all. Neither good nor bad." He sees Mary Larsen going at him, laughter in her eyes.

SCUTTLED

CHAPTER X

JIM MALLORY still looked at Mary Larsen when Lois Hammond came and slipped her arm through his. He thought: "So she didn't become Eric Forbes' secretary." And he might have hoped Mary was now interested in the things he had said to her back home—were it not for his suspicions.

Lois said, her voice soft, "It's good to see you again, Jim." And he looked from Mary to her. Lois' lips smiled but her eyes were dark and stormy. She had seen his too-long glance at the other girl, and she had read its meaning. She hadn't liked that glance at all.

"It's good to see you again," he said. And, for the other girl's benefit, he lay his hand on Lois' hand and fondly squeezed it.

He turned to Jeffery Hammond. "I'd like to talk with you, sir, alone."

"Of course, Mallory. Come to my cabin."

"In the cabin, Hammond faced him with evident embarrassment. His hands shook as he lighted a cigar. "Well, let's have it, Mallory."

"There's no ore in the Sonora's forward hold," Jim said. "I've a hunch there's none in the after hold. I want an explanation."

"Very well. I shall give you an explanation. I came here for that purpose. Back in Miami Beach, Mr. Forbes and I made you an offer. We wanted you to drop your plans for salvaging the Sonora. You wouldn't deal with us, and you threatened to do the job on your own. We couldn't afford to let you do that. I went into this thing with you merely to secure your secrecy."

"You didn't want me to report anything to the Coast Guard or to the Maritime Commission?"

"That's right. You know, of course, how the Sonora was sunk."

"By shellfire?"

The Corsican and the Austrian

It proves nothing. It is no guide to the future. But the temptation to draw parallels between Hitler's invasion of Russia and Napoleon's is too strong, like the desire for an extra slice of elderberry pie.

Napoleon was a foreigner, a Corsican, ruling France. Hitler is a foreigner, an Austrian, ruling Germany.

Napoleon rose to power in France on the tide of a revolution. Hitler rose thus in Germany. Napoleon terrorized Europe for years. So has Hitler.

Napoleon picked a fight with Russia without a scrap of provocation, simply because he had decided that Russia must be eliminated. Hitler did the same.

Napoleon had assembled a motley army of French, Italians, Swiss, Dutch, Poles and Germans. Hitler is using, in addition to his Germans, Rumanians, Bulgarians, Slovaks, and Italians.

Napoleon advanced as far as Smolensk without a serious battle, and took that city by storm in a two-day operation, Aug. 17, 18.

Here the pattern begins to diverge. Hitler advanced into Russia in three great movements, in the north against Leningrad, in the south against Kiev, and in the center against Moscow. That central drive reached Smolensk and captured Moscow. That central drive reached Smolensk and captured it in a two-day battle about Aug. 10, 11. Here Hitler is a week ahead of the Napoleonic schedule.

Hitler has made great progress also on both the southern and northern fronts at the same time, but roughly speaking he stands today where Napoleon stood at the same time.

Now let us follow the fortunes of Napoleon the rest of the way. On Sept. 7 the Russians stood, and under the able Kutusoff gave battle at Borodino on the Moscow river. Both sides had enormous losses (the French 32,000, the Russians 47,000), but Kutusoff withdrew in admirable order, retreating through Moscow and taking its people with him. On Sept. 14 Napoleon occupied the city.

Between the 15th and 19th the Russians burned the city, and after remaining five weeks Napoleon got out of there. By the time he had reached Jaroslavl, Vjasma, and Krasnoy, fighting continually the harassing Russians and Cossacks, cold weather descended. By the time he forced a passage over the Berezina river, the suffering from hunger and cold was terrible.

On Dec. 3 Napoleon left the army to its fate and went back to Paris. The tattered remainder, only 100,000 of the 500,000 with which he started, crossed the Niemen to safety on Dec. 13. The expedition had cost Napoleon 300,000 lives and 100,000 prisoners.

All this is related, not to rouse any false hopes that history is about to repeat itself. It seldom does, and then with variations. But up to a point it raises some curious parallels.

Whatever your position in life, take care of your health. It doesn't care how important you are!

A lark is something that if you go out on you can't get up with.

Theories are more apt to work if those who have them will.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, Aug. 20—This mixed-up mess of a gasoline curtailment program in eastern states is surrounded by so much mystery and confusion, no one can ascertain objectively today even the basic fact of whether the program is fully justified yet.

The National Petroleum News, trade publication of the industry, says stocks of gasoline on hand in east coast storage tanks on August 9 were slightly larger than the same weekend a year ago. It computed the total of barrels then on the shortage ground at 21,686,000. A year ago the same eastern tanks held 21,517,000 barrels.

The August 9 week showed an increase over the previous week, when 21,438,000 barrels of gasoline were ready for distribution in the eastern area (a decrease from August 2 week of last year, when 22,221,000 barrels were on hand). These figures do not indicate a shortage.

Ickes' own bureau of mines has officially announced in its routine statistics, the amount of crude oil in stock at east coast refineries on August 9 was increasing, not declining. It estimated 14,253,000 barrels on hand that week, whereas only 12,878,000 barrels were assembled in the so-called shortage area the week ending Aug. 2.

These figures, likewise seem to fail to justify the closing of gasoline stations from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. or the 10 p. m. curtailment ordered subsequently.

The confusing publicity which has attended the program from its inception has based on the supposition that the transfer of tankers to the British has already made, or will eventually make — which one is not clear—the shortage.

The independent oil people (in contradistinction to the representatives of the larger companies who now all have representatives working in Ickes office) have been grumbling around Washington that there should not be a shortage of tankers.

This government, they say, has announced the transfer of 50 tankers to the British and is secretly supposed to have promised 30 more later. Actually only 32 tankers have so far been transferred to the British service.

Against this loss of 32, there should have been many acquisitions. The Ickes oil control administration has announced that our construction program has been providing 10 new tankers every 3 months. Since the original 50 were designated for British service, we, therefore should have built 10.

The loadline level was raised by the government, increasing capacity of shipments to the east coast by three tankers. That's 15.

Then some ships flying from California to the east coast have been put on a run from Gulf ports, shortening their haul, to the equivalent of adding five. That's 18.

The schedules of runs to the Caribbean has been changed to the advantage of four five German and Italian tankers. These acquisitions total 37, fully replacing the 32, say the independents.

The oil control administration says nothing, contending all news of tankers is a military secret.

One recent tanker shipment was not kept a secret, however, despite the appeal May 22 of Admiral Land, chairman of the Maritime Commission. He then asked that newspapers refrain from publishing the departure of all merchant ships carrying materials to belligerents, especially dates and destinations.

No, a single item of such news had been printed until Ickes, the oil coordinator, publicly announced last week that a tanker was sailing from a California port for Vladivostok and he named the date it would leave.

The announcement constituted practically a dare to the Japanese to do something about it, as Tokyo had not tested earlier the shipment of materials to the Reds.

In the midst of the confusion, Ickes has shipped off for "three weeks to a month" vacation, in seclusion at Mt. Olympus National Park (administered by his interior department), carrying the mystery of the policy with him.

What the independent oil men fear is that he will emerge from his seclusion to point out what everyone already sees — namely, that the cumbersome and almost absurd efforts of his oil control administration to curtail consumption, have failed. They fear he will say he will have to ration gasoline and will issue 6,000,000 cards to all motorist consumers.

This might prod the people of the country into a personal appreciation of the nearness of war to them and the necessity of Hitler to disturb their lives, so far it seems only to be making them angry with Ickes. His curtailment advice is being roundly hissed and frequently booed in the public cinema palaces in Washington.

At restaurants and gas stations, the phrase that "Ickes is the most hated man in the United States" is commonly heard exponents for more likely now that the government will have to start all over again at the beginning in the curtailment program, lay its cards on the table, justify the necessity and thus obtain wholehearted cooperation. The original mistake may merely have been in letting such an unredemptable irritant as Ickes get control of the program (instead of say Hopkins or Wallace) and in his reliance on the cooperation of the large oil companies, without seeking public support by frank justification of the necessity.

Great Lakes Naval Training Station's Capacity Doubled

Accommodations for 14,000 Men If Needed, Department's Plan

Great Lakes, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—The Great Lakes naval training station, commended by Secretary Frank Knox, is giving 3,000 men a month their introduction to seafaring life and is prepared to double the number if the need arises.

Stationed in barracks are some 7,000 sailors, many of them recruits fresh from midwestern farms and cities.

While the basic course of instruction in naval fundamentals has been cut from eight to six weeks, new barracks and recreation halls are going up and others are being planned so that the Great Lakes capacity could be boosted to 15,000.

Knox, attending Governors' Day activities yesterday, complimented Rear Admiral John Downes for the appearance of the 500 acre reservation and for the morale of the men.

"The best I've seen," commented Knox.

Spokesmen said there was no intention to equal the World War expansion when at one time 47,000 men were being trained at the station, on the shore of Lake Michigan just below Waukegan.

No Need for Added Area

The navy started to increase its personnel several years ago, they pointed out, and there should be no need of pushing the boundaries beyond the present wooded area.

In the World War, an additional 500 acres to the westward was acquired for temporary barracks. That area now is used by the Downey veterans' hospital.

The Great Lakes training station, which also includes a service school for advanced instruction of seamen, is one of three establishments in the Chicago area busy with the induction of men into the navy.

Flying Instruction
At the Glenview airport, 100 men each month are being taught to fly planes. There each cadet spends ten hours in the air and makes his solo flight, before being shipped on to the advanced flying fields at Jacksonville, Pensacola or Corpus Christi.

Squadrons of college men are now being organized there. In training are the "Flying Badgers," a group recruited from the University of Wisconsin; the "Flying Boilermakers" from Purdue; and the "Flying Irish" from Notre Dame. Soon to arrive will be "Chicago's Own" squadron, sponsored by World War fliers from the metropolis.

On Northwestern university's downtown campus, 706 midshipmen now are training to become naval officers. Each group spends four months there before being assigned to fleet duty.

Sea Scout News

Sea Scout Ship No. 567 will meet at the Sea Scout hall, 97½ Galena avenue, at six bells this evening. Members expecting to attend the regional Regatta at Moline over Labor Day week end are asked to be present.

Plans will also be discussed for participation in the Fair and Horse Show this week end. Skipper Earl Slagle will be in charge.

Suburban—

MRS. MARY KOIDE

Mrs. Mary Koide passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. LeRoy Chacon of West Brooklyn, Ill., Wednesday at 4:30 p. m., August 20, 1941 after a brief illness. Mary Theresa Streit was born in May township, December 2, 1870, the daughter of Michael and Margaret Haser Streit. Mrs. Koide was married to Otto Full of Maytown, Feb. 1, 1893, he predeceasing her in death April 1, 1902, leaving the following children, Leo, of Sublette, Ill.; Mrs. Annie Long of Rockford, Ill.; William of Franklin Grove, and Mrs. Clara Chacon of West Brooklyn, Ill. and one daughter Ida, dying in infancy.

On January 8, 1907, Mrs. Full was married to Peter Koide of Topeka, Kansas, he having preceded her in death March 9, 1922. The following children were born to this union, Roman of Dixon, Ill., and Lambert of Amboy, Ill., and the following brothers and sister survive, Peter Streit of Sublette, Ill.; Mrs. Katherine Jacoby of Presho, S. D.; John Streit of Medford, Wis., and six brothers preceded her in death and 16 grandchildren are left to mourn her loss besides a host of friends. Mrs. Koide lived on a farm in the vicinity of Sublette, Ill., except the past seven years where she resided in Amboy, Ill.

Funeral services will be held from her late home, 240 N. Mason avenue, Amboy, Ill., at 9 a. m. Saturday and 9:30 a. m. at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Amboy, Ill. Rev. Robert Troy will officiate with burial in St. Mary's cemetery at Sublette, Ill.

WILLIAM C. SPENCER

Word has been received here of the death at Oakland, Calif., of Rev. William C. Spencer, a former pastor of the First Baptist church in Dixon. He was pastor of the Dixon Baptist church for five years, beginning in 1897, and will be remembered by many Dixon people as an able preacher, his wife having been an untiring worker in the charities of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Spencer, who had been retired since 1926, passed away Saturday at his home, just three days after he had celebrated his 87th birthday anniversary.

Born in London, England, he took his first pastorate at Lancaster, England. Later he went to New Zealand and in that country he founded several Baptist churches and was prominent in the work of the Baptist convention, going to California in 1880 he served several pastorates in that state, and later came to this city. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. William Lock, who resides in England, and a nephew Frank Spencer of Springfield, Mass. His wife had preceded him in death.

DR. WILLIAM B. PECK

Mrs. Burdge and Harry Hetler Are Wed at Parsonage

Mrs. Margaret Burdge, daughter of Hiram Eberly of Eldena, and Harry Hetler of Dixon were married at 4 p. m. Wednesday at the parsonage of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Dr. Lloyd W. Walter performed the ceremony.

The bride was wearing a navy blue and beige ensemble, with matching accessories. Pink roses and baby's breath formed her corsage.

Attending the ceremony were the bride's father, and her young daughter, Judith Irene, who was dressed in pink taffeta with pale blue trimming.

A wedding dinner was served at the Hotel Nachusa for 30 relatives. Pink and white flowers decorated the tables, with a three-tiered cake as the centerpiece on the bride's table.

In the party were Hiram Eberly, Judith Irene Burdge, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Burdge and daughter Elsie Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Eberly, Mrs. Ellen Brierton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. John Hetler, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Heckman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burge, Mrs. Della May, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Helfrich, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brierton and son Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brierton, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Eberly, Dorothea and Eleanor Reinert, and the bride's father.

After a two weeks' wedding trip through the east, the couple will be at home on the bridegroom's farm, near Dixon. For traveling, the bride wore a black and white ensemble.

APPROXIMATELY 166 YOUNG WOMEN OF LEE COUNTY TAKE PART IN 4-H SHOW AT AMBOY

A dress revue, judging of foods, room improvement and clothing projects, and a free dental examination were included on the day's program for the annual Lee County 4-H club show held Tuesday at the Amboy park. Approximately 166 girls, representing a dozen clubs throughout the county, participated in the event, which attracted many visitors.

Sixty girls were examined during the dental clinic, conducted by Dr. Berryman of Amboy and Mrs. K. L. Church, county nurse. Two of the group, Frances Drew of Dixon and Yvonne Robbins of Amboy, were presented with tooth brushes in recognition of teeth in good condition. Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Heath and Mrs. Charles Swegle assisted with the clinic.

Miss Esther Smith, Mrs. Gladys Bunting, and Mrs. John Moeller were in charge of registrations at "Floral Hall," where the foods, room improvement and clothing projects were displayed. Ribbons were awarded as follows:

Mrs. Nilsson Is Defeated in Match with Miss Davies

Mrs. Gunnar Nilsson, defending champion in the 1941 tournament for linkswomen of the Dixon County club, was defeated yesterday morning, one down, in her match with Miss Marion Davies. Miss Davies is to meet Mrs. C. A. Buchner in a 36-hole match on Monday and Tuesday to determine the championship. Mrs. Buchner having finished five up and four to go, ahead of Mrs. Eldon Myers yesterday morning.

The women golfers have been battling it out over the parched fairways and putting carpets for the past week, with the privilege of wearing the club crown at stake. In the consolidation flight, Miss Elsie Neff, who is vacationing in the south, has defaulted to Mrs. George Beier. Mrs. Beier and Mrs. H. K. Millard will be playing off their 36-hole match tomorrow and Saturday, as Mrs. Millard eliminated Mrs. L. C. Shoaf yesterday afternoon.

In addition to observing the tournament matches yesterday, the linkswomen were playing for handicapped scores and low putts. Mrs. Joe Miller won the handicap prize with a 75, and Mrs. Beier carded low putts, 32.

Next Wednesday will see the linkswomen climaxing a successful season with their annual Round-Up. They plan to tee off for their weekly match at 1 p. m., and dinner will be served at 7 o'clock, with awarding of prizes and trophies as the highlight of the evening. Young women golfers are invited to join the group for dinner and the program to follow, which is to include several reels of Pro Ralph Stonehouse's moving pictures.

Comedy Cast Is Announced

Christmas comes but once a year, it has been said, but the spirit of joyous Noel will prevail in old Illini hall at Grand Detour this week, as the stage of the Grand Detour Players' summer theater will be decorated with a huge Christmas tree, during the third act of the comedy, "She Couldn't Marry Three."

For tonight's opening performance of the popular New York success, Director Richard Vernon announces the following cast of characters:

Don Randall will be seen as Don Roice, a likeable, typically American boy, who is one of the "gang" that inhabits the bachelor apartment about which the play revolves. His co-partners in mirth and mischief will be Edward Rees, as Sid Everett, a sensitive and moody dreamer; and John Cosgrove, as the happy-go-lucky vaudeville actor, Grumple. Mr. Vernon will portray an old Irishman who is persecuted by his wife and pursued by the demon rum.

Feminine members of the cast will include Miss Edith Perry, who has been absent for the past two weeks, in the leading role of Sally Chandler, a homeless Cinderella girl who wins the hearts of all the young men; Miss Joan Nordlander, as the tragic servant girl; and Miss Toni Lumley, seen last as Lorraine in "A Kick in the Kitchen", who is appearing this week as the gruff, outspoken Irish landlady.

"She Couldn't Marry Three" will continue nightly through Sunday, with an added matinee at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday.

Bridge-Dinner Compliments Helen Carson

A hostess trio composed of Mrs. James Furlong, Mrs. Jerome Sleeper, and Mrs. Larry Bryce was receiving 20 dinner guests at the Coffee House last evening in compliment to Miss Helen Carson, who is to become the bride of Paul James of Belvidere, Sept. 17.

Dinner was served at flower-trimmed tables at 7 o'clock, and was followed by bridge games. Miss Sara Carson, Mrs. James Harkins, and Mrs. Kenneth Detweiler were sharing score favors when tallies were compared at the close of play. A bridge set was the group's bridal gift for the honoree.

his grandfather, Sam Bacharach. Charles Kuebel of Sublette was a Dixon business caller yesterday. John Archer of Compton transacted business in Dixon yesterday afternoon.

Isaac Trask of Ashton was visiting with Dixon friends today.

Conservation Inspector Stoddard Danekas of Reynolds township was in Dixon today on business.

Mrs. Helen McNamers, Harold Sheaffer and Harold Cook transacted business in Galena this afternoon.

Miss Lucy Lawton will leave Friday for Reddick, Ill., where she will teach languages in the Reddick Community high school.

Cousins of William

Loftus Injured in Crash Near Morrison

Five persons were seriously injured in an automobile crash about three miles west of Morrison at 11:30 o'clock today, all of whom were taken to the Morrison hospital in ambulances which were summoned to the scene by State Police Sergeant Edward Mahan of Dixon and Officer Kenneth Gentry who were near the scene when the cars collided. The cars were almost demolished.

William Connell, 72, Chicago, and sisters, Maude and Lucy, cousins of William Loftus of this city, were enroute to Clinton, Iowa, to visit their brother Edward Connell, who is recuperating at Mercy hospital there, from injuries sustained in an automobile accident some days ago. West of Morrison Connell was reported to have turned off the Lincoln Highway paving at a point where state highway maintenance crews were making repairs, his car skidding in loose gravel and crashing into a machine in which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Belk of Milwaukee, Wis., were riding.

Hitler's headquarters declared. In the critical battle of the Ukraine, the Germans reported that units of the Waffen S. S. (elite guard) had seized the strategic town of Kherson, on the west bank of the lower Dnieper river, thereby virtually sealing Red army troops in the Odessa sector.

Power Dam Below Up?

Amid this desperate plight of the Red armies in the Ukraine, unconfirmed reports circulated in European listening posts that the Russians had opened or blown up the great $100,000,000 Dnieper river dam, near Dnepropetrovsk, in an attempt to stem the Nazi onslaught.

In the critical battle of Leningrad, Soviet Marshal Klement Voroshilov admitted that the Germans were attacking the city's approaches and dramatically called on the inhabitants to fight to the death.

Reports from Helsinki said Finnish columns fighting on the Karelian isthmus had captured the towns of Vuoksenranta and Raisala, 65 miles from Leningrad.

Dardanelles Threatened? An axis threat to Turkey and the Turkish-controlled Dardanelles was reported by foreign diplomatic sources in Ankara.

These sources said advance units of two Nazi army divisions had arrived in Bulgaria, Italian patrols had been scouting the Turkish-Greek border, and Italian garrisons on Greek islands near the Dardanelles had been strengthened.

Accident Near Castle Rock

David M. Maytnier, Chicago salesman, escaped without a scratch in an automobile crash south of Castle Rock on state route No. 2 at about 11:15 o'clock today. The Chicago salesman, driving south, crashed into a heavy dump body state highway department truck, which was being used in grading operations near the location. The sedan was badly damaged and was hauled to a local garage, while the state truck was only slightly damaged.

Driverless Car Hits Another

A car belonging to Fred Hatch, employed at the United Cigar store, was damaged this afternoon at 1 o'clock in a collision with a driverless machine. The driverless car had been parked in front of the Dixon theater building when the driver of another machine attempted to park on the east side of the street and bumped the unoccupied car. Swerving from the curbing, the driverless car crossed to the west side of Galena avenue and crashed head on into the Hatch car. Both machines were damaged slightly.

yards of the Federal Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company has tied up work the past two weeks on $193,000,000 worth of defense orders, including warships for the navy. The CIO Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers is demanding that the company accept a recent recommendation of the National Mediation Board which would mean that present and future members of the union would have to maintain good union standing as a requisite of employment.

L. H. Korndorff, company president, rejected the plan, contending it would amount to a closed shop. He offered to turn the plant over to the navy for operation—an offer upon which the government has not acted.

ROCKFORD PLANT CLOSED

Rockford, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—Pickets paraded today in front of the plant of the Mechanics Universal Joint division of Borg-Warner Corporation, shut down after CIO union and management representatives halted labor dispute negotiations.

Workers left their jobs yesterday. The plant, which employs 870 men, manufactures machinery and automobile and tractor parts and holds orders from the Rock Island, Ill. arsenal.

The Defense Mediation Board, which had requested the company and local 225 of the United Automobile Workers Union to continue negotiations, was notified of the work stoppage. The board had asked negotiators to report today on the progress made.

Emil C. Tranter, company president, said the principal issue in dispute was establishment of a closed shop. The union voted three weeks ago to strike, but the mediation board recommended that negotiations be undertaken.

REACH AGREEMENT

Washington, Aug. 21—(AP)—The Defense Mediation Board announced today that an agreement had been reached for settlement of the dispute between the Rockford Drop Forge Company, Rockford, Ill., and two AFL unions.

Details of the agreement were not disclosed. It is subject to ratification by the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helmers of America (AFL) and the International Association of Machinists (AFL).

At issue in the dispute was a union demand for negotiation of a working agreement.

Officials said that about 300 workers were involved.

bootlegger and illicit character," Carl G. Bachman of Charleston, a member of the West Virginia Liquor Commission, told the committee that after the federal liquor tax was increased 75 cents a gallon last year still seizures in West Virginia increased 167 per cent and mash seizures increased 219 per cent. Legal sales of whisky declined 10 per cent, he added.

Randolph W. Chils, executive director of the Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverages Study, Inc., testified that illegal liquor could be produced and sold at about one fourth the price of legal liquor.

"If prices of legal liquor become prohibitive," he added, "a large group of citizens will resort to bootleggers."

James B. O'Rear, an independent Kentucky distiller, expressed a similar view.

FROM MOSCOW

Moscow, Aug. 21—(AP)—Leningrad was proclaimed under "direct threat of attack," by the Red army northwest command today as Marshal Klement Voroshilov called on the people to rise in arms and defend their city to the death.

If Leningrad is defended, the German radio declared, it will suffer the fate of Warsaw, Poland's capital, which was pounded for days by the Luftwaffe and Nazi siege guns at its gates before the Poles surrendered it.

Voroshilov acknowledged "dread danger" to the city but expressed confidence that its defenses would hold, declaring Russia's second city and czarist capital "never was and never will be in the hands of the enemy."

The population was exhorted to train new detachments of workers for the people's army to support the regular army.

Leningrad has about 25 percent of the Soviet working class. It was defended successfully by Joseph Stalin in 1919 when it was threatened during the civil war.

Fight Rages Through Night The Soviet information bureau said fighting had raged through the night in the Novgorod region, about 100 miles south of Leningrad, as well as in the Gornel sector on the center of the eastern front and around Odessa in the south.

It reported no change in the situation but the Red army newspaper, Red Star, said Russian forces pressing their counter-attack on the central sector had recaptured several towns yesterday.

Russians reported a Soviet counter thrust on the central front which brought into play—apparently for the first time—Russia's publicized parachute troops and air-borne tanks.

The Germans, too, used their parachute troops and air-borne tanks, the Soviet communiqué said, but it said that when they landed in the vicinity of a bridge a Red army platoon disabled the machines and annihilated the parachutists.

FROM BERLIN Berlin, Aug. 21—(AP)—Three key cities in the main Leningrad defense ring—heavily defended Novgorod, Kingisepp and Narva—have been captured in a German drive which is within 75 miles or less of Soviet Russia's second city, the Nazi high command announced today.

The war bulletin from Adolf Hitler's headquarters, repeating last night's special announcement of the partial destruction of 25 Red army divisions in the Ukraine, claimed also the capture of Kherson, at the mouth of the Dnieper river.

Thus the German pressure was suddenly and sharply intensified at the northern end of the long eastern front, directly imperiling Russia's old czarist capital, even while the broad drive to the industrial heart of the Ukraine surged unabated around the banks of the Dnieper.

Leningrad now is menaced from three sides—north, west and south—by German and Finnish forces.

In Western Sector Kingisepp and Narva are on the Germans' western sector, Narva, which had been regarded as an important Russian defense position on the land bridge between the Gulf of Finland and Lake Peipus, is only 81 miles southwest of Leningrad.

Kingisepp, still farther east, is 75 miles away and across the Estonian border from Narva in Russia proper.

Novogorod, where the Russians put up particularly stubborn resistance, is on the southern rim of the Red army's defense arc near Lake Ilmen, about 100 miles from Leningrad.

The high command went again into specific detail to tell the German people of their armies "victorious advance."

By driving to Kherson, on the west bank of the Dnieper at one of the principal crossings of the river which is 10 miles wide there, the Germans claimed to have isolated Odessa to the west. Bitter fighting still was being waged for that besieged naval base and Black sea port.

Claim Many Prisoners At the same time German military quarters estimated that at least 350,000 Russians had been taken prisoner thus far in the Ukraine.

A 3,000 ton vessel was sunk by German bombers in an attack on a British convoy yesterday. 50 miles west of Ireland, German sources said.

They also reported a night raid against military objectives in the Suez canal region.

The War Today—

succinctly when he declared that oil, copper, and crude rubber are the trump cards in the hands of freedom. He pointed out that America and Britain together control some 70 per cent of the world's supply of oil, eighty-five per cent of the copper and 91 per cent of the crude rubber.

Hitler's drive against Russia is a terrific drive on all these essentials, especially oil. Don't forget that oil is necessary not only to keep the mechanical equipment of war running, but the factories which produce the equipment. All industry must halt if there is no oil.

Germany still possesses sinews of war, but she has gained much at the expense of other countries. The continent is on the downgrade and slipping fast. Germany cannot exist as an island in the midst of a sea of hunger and privation.

There won't be any ten-year war unless Hitler breaks through to great new sources of supplies, and he must move fast, for the allies are gaining strength hourly.

Invited to Hazelwood

Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen has graciously invited Miss Parsons and the members of her party to be her guests at historic Hazelwood during their stay in Dixon. Chairmen of the various committees, their wives and the honor guests have also been invited to be guests at a luncheon to be served at Hazelwood at noon on Louella Parsons Day.

The committee in charge of the parade announced at last evening's meeting that the parade would be organized and pass through the business district at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Rural Teachers Hold Instructive Meeting

Rural teachers of Lee county spent an enjoyable day in Dixon yesterday at their annual instructional meeting held in the Circuit court room at the court house and presided over by County Superintendent of Schools John A. Torrens. An interesting and instructive program was arranged for the teachers which included an illustrated talk by Miss Lucille Farnsworth, art instructor in the Dalton-Riverview schools in Chicago, which dealt with the teaching of art in rural schools.

Mrs. Marion Church of this county nurse, outlined the program which she plans for the coming school season, including the health practices to be introduced in the rural schools of Lee county.

Miss Lillian Bollenbach of Tampico, district P.T.A. chairman for northwest Illinois, gave a talk on the proposed activities of this organization in the schools.

Weekly Food and Marketing Letter by Mrs. Emily M. Lautz for Dixon Telegraph Readers

Once upon a time, famous hotel chefs won fame with rich pastries decked with indigestible rosettes and how-knots and what-nots. Now the talk of the town is the man who can assemble the most appetizing, vitamin-rich salad plate—not the chef who can turn out the most pink rosebuds in an hour.

These "chef specialties" are conclusive evidence of the modern determination to eat wisely. As the nation becomes more and more vitamin-conscious, so are the chefs staying awake nights to figure out more salad plates with eye and appetite appeal. No longer is it the "blue" plate. Science has an explanation for the fact that green should predominate in summer.

Green suggests coolness because of its association with ferns, wet glens, trees and lush pastures. But why is it that green "rests the eyes?" Science explains that some greens will reflect up to 75 per cent of the light which strikes them. White reflects all the light; black absorbs it all. Since absorbed light changes to heat, it follows that the colors which reflect the most light are coolest. Therefore modern table settings for summer months are featuring green and white as the dominant colors—in linen, glass and decorative effects—and crisp green leads in the salad plates, served on green glass, or on green-banded white plates.

Even the iced tea is dressed with limes to complete the color scheme, and for informal parties or buffet service, green paper napkins have supplanted white. Green and white checked linen is popular for porch service, and deep green glass bowls hold flowers.

Of course those salad plates must have their red contrast—carried out in stuffed tomatoes, tomato juice aspic, tiny pickled beets, or wedges of jellied cranberry sauce. Not forgetting orange strips of pimiento and flecks of paprika. But often the red trim is supplanted by sprigs of watercress, parsley or chopped chives, the latter being a frequent companion of cottage cheese, which seems indispensable on the summer salad plate.

The Hotel Bulletin for June devotes a two-page spread to the Summer Salad Plates, which are winning a nation-wide following for the creative chef of the Davenport Hotel, Spokane, Washington. Distinguished visitors and just every-day folks (like you and me), return to the Davenport Hotel and order these specialties by name—knowing—for instance, that "Dairy Maid" will bring them a mold of cottage cheese, garnished by orange, grapefruit, pineapple, avocado, apricot and greens. Here are other photographed salad plates from Edward F. Mathieu, Chef de Cuisine of the Davenport Hotel:

Excellence—Tomato Juice Aspic, fruits, cashew nuts, avocado, celery, bananas, figs.

Nobility—Peanut butter and cottage cheese sandwiches, potato salad, shrimp, antipasto, asparagus tips, string beans, anchovies.

Ambassadors—Lettuce, English cheese, in pastry bag, asparagus, artichokes, anchovies, watercress garnish.

Aviation—Lettuce, tomato, asparagus tips, crab legs, anchovies fillet, artichoke hearts.

Golden Glow—Avocado, lettuce ring, sliced pineapple, pineapple ring in aspic, cheese balls.

Manhattan Trio—Chicken salad, fruit salad, molded custard.

Amazon—Cole slaw, centered by cottage cheese, imported sardines, watercress.

Palace—Shredded lettuce, chopped eggs, crab legs, artichoke, anchovies fillet.

Stage and screen celebrities are not the only famous folks who say it with salads. Friends reveal that the terror of criminals, J. Edgar Hoover, Chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, does not stick to a diet of red-blooded steak after all. He orders a soothing salad plate of greens, tomato and avocado, dressed with lemon juice and olive oil. Another "he-man,"

Admiral Richard E. Byrd, prefers a wooden bowl filled with shredded vegetables blended with lemon juice French dressing. Other celebrities call for such combinations as romaine, alligator pear and carrot salad. Shredded or diced carrots are finding their way into many hot weather dishes.

All chefs are agreed on one point: That the dressing can make or mar a salad. And the blending must be done with a light hand, so that each fruit or vegetable is perfect; greens must be lightly coated, not messy. Never add dressing to tomatoes until serving time, or to a salad which contains tomato sections. Dressing quickly draws juices and flavors from tomatoes.

Reporting some chef salad creations from famous New York hotels, The Journal of Living calls attention to a Special Dressing which is a favorite with patrons of the New Yorker. This dressing is worthy of note, not only for its distinctive flavor, but because it keeps well in the refrigerator and can be called upon to dress almost any meat, fowl or vegetable salad. Here it is:

Special Dressing, New Yorker
Salt and pepper (to taste)
2 teaspoons dry mustard
2 teaspoons grated horseradish
2 ounces lemon juice
6 ounces mayonnaise
1/4 teaspoon chives, chopped
1 ounce shredded orange peel
2 ounces applesauce
2 ounces chili sauce
3/4 teaspoon fresh tarragon
3/4 teaspoon fresh chervil
3 ounces whipped cream

Mix salt and pepper, mustard, horseradish and lemon juice with mayonnaise. Blend with remaining ingredients in order given, adding the whipped cream last. Store in refrigerator. Yields 1 pint.

Of course, there is one reminder which cannot be repeated too often: Salad greens must be fresh, thoroughly clean and crisp. Try washing them in a wire basket or colander, running cold water through them, shaking them dry, then storing in crisp refrigerator. Do this in the morning for luncheon or dinner salads.

You will note that coleslaw figures in many salad plates. Raw cabbage, so rich in vitamins and other values, often is spurned because of digestive difficulties. It is high in roughage, but often causes trouble because it is coarsely cut. Try shredding very finely, test a small quantity, chewing well.

CRANBERRIES FOR COOLNESS

Frozen Cranberry Cream
What to serve in Summer? Something cool. Something colorful. Something different. Here are two specialties to have ready in the trays of your automatic refrigerator:
1 17-oz. can jellied cranberry sauce
1 cup water
1 cup water
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
3/4 cup sugar
2 egg yolks
1-3 cup orange juice.

Press sauce through a sieve; add water and sugar. Beat the egg yolks and stir into cranberry mixture. Cook over hot water until custardy. Add orange juice and cool. Fold in whipped cream. Freeze at lowest temperature in automatic refrigerator. Serves 6.

Frozen Cranberry Parfait

1/2 (17-oz.) can jellied cranberry sauce
1 teaspoon almond or vanilla extract
1 egg white
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
Blend sauce and powdered sugar with a fork until smooth. Beat the egg white stiff. Fold into cranberry mixture, with whipped cream and flavoring. Freeze in tray of automatic refrigerator, at coldest setting, until firm. Serves 6. This popular dessert is quickly prepared and keeps well—when hidden from sight.

DID YOU KNOW?
Cranberries contain iron, calcium, phosphorus, copper, manganese, Vitamin A and vitamin C.

WHEN THE BRIDGE CLUB COMES

Frozen Banana Salad
Salads are the thing when the bridge club comes. The refrigerator does the work on this one—and you get the credit.
1 package cream cheese (3-oz.)
3/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons crushed pineapple
2 tablespoons cherries, cut
1/2 cup nut meats, chopped
1 cup whipping cream
3 ripe bananas, diced
(Yellow peel, flecked with brown)

Soften cheese with a fork. Add salt, mayonnaise and lemon juice. Mix well. Drain pineapple well and fold in with finely cut cherries and nuts. (Nuts may be omitted.) Whip cream until thick and shiny, but not stiff. Fold into cheese mixture. Fold in bananas. Turn into freezing trays of automatic refrigerator. Freeze about 3 hours, with indicator at coldest setting. Do not use until firm. Cut into squares and garnish with crisp salad greens. Yields 10 to 12 servings.

Flaked Fish Salad

2 tablespoons lemon juice or vinegar
2 cups cooked fish, flaked
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
1/2 cup celery, diced
1 cup apple, diced
1 tomato, peeled and diced
1/2 cup nutmeats, broken
1 cup mayonnaise

Seasonings, lettuce or watercress. Pour lemon juice or vinegar over flaked and boned fish. Add the other ingredients, using 1 large tomato, or 2 small. Season to taste, blending added seasonings with mayonnaise. Sections of cucumber may be added to garnish. Serves 6.

LINE ON FOOD

Rice added to thick stews often starts to burn at the bottom unless the cook is watching very carefully. If it does start to scorch, place a knife blade in the center, and in the hole that it leaves insert an onion. This eliminates the unpleasant smell. Now remove the cooking pan from the fire and put to one side, uncovered.

Onions now are growing on 13-400 acres of muck-land in New York, after being hampered by late frosts and dust storms. In dollar value, onions are the most important vegetable crop in New York, the 1940 production amounting to $4,724,000. This state also is most important of the late onion states, Michigan being second.

Delicate trout must be handled gently lest they break to pieces. They must not be overdone, yet if they are cooked at too low a temperature, the flesh will be soft. Lift the browned fish to a very hot platter, sprinkle with minced parsley, spray with lemon juice.

Green's Nine-Day Tour of State to Include This City

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—Governor Green will leave Sept. 2 for a nine-day tour of the state to learn at first hand the condition of state institutions, parks, highways and other state activities. The tour will be the first comprehensive inspection trip for the governor since he took office last January.

"In a genuine effort to learn at first hand the necessity for further improvements, Governor Green is seeking, insofar as possible, to avoid any gatherings of a political nature," Harry S. Canfield, superintendent of reports, announced.

The tour will start Sept. 2 from Geneva and the first day's activities will include inspection of route 330 and a visit to White Pine state park. The governor, accompanied by state officials and newsmen, will then head south, visiting Rock Island, Quincy, Alton, East St. Louis and Murphysboro before going to Crab Orchard Lake and Giant City state park.

The concluding days of the trip will be spent in eastern Illinois, including visits to Danville and Champaign.

OLD DRUGS

The pharmacopoeia of the Central and South American Aztecs and Incas are the sources of many modern drugs, such as chenopodium, cocaine and quinine.

NEW WORD?

An "airscape" is a coined word used to describe a picture taken from an airplane. The word may replace the old term of "bird's-eye view."

The tortoise-shell is the longest lived of all butterflies, living for about a year.

SO WE HAVE TO OUTSMART FICKLE Dame Nature!

Flavor—all-important in tea—is not a simple thing, like picking your favorite kind of apple. Far from it! The tea that you measure into your pot may contain a dozen different kinds of tea leaf... and the blending of these teas calls for long experience and consummate skill.

For many years, A&P experts have been true masters in this subtle art. In fact, certain of the experts on A&P's staff are men internationally famous in the tea trade. The delicious blends they worked out have become such favorites that A&P teas are the most popular in the United States.

But the ultimate test of the blender's art goes beyond making the original blend. It is in keeping the taste of your favorite brand of tea always the same. To do this we have to "outsmart" Dame Nature, for Nature is fickle and changes constantly. Each tea crop varies, not only in different lands but even in the same tea garden, from year to year and season to season.

As soon as a shipment of tea arrives, A&P's experts go into action. They can tell even before brewing tea... simply by the appearance, and the aroma of the tea leaves... in what districts (Ceylon, China, India) the crop was grown. Constant tests of taste and aroma are made, many minute adjustments take place before making up the final blending sheet in the master blender's office. No wonder A&P's famous teas—Mayfair, Nectar, Our Own... are noted for their unvarying goodness!

Yes, A&P goes to great lengths to perfect the quality of its teas and all the other A&P-made products, yet the prices of these products are refreshingly low. That's because of our modern factory-to-you method which does away with extra handling charges and middlemen's profits. The savings thus made are shared with customers.

Further savings are made by customers who patronize A&P's new kind of store... the A&P Super Market. Here you have a food department store, doing 5 to 15 times as much business as the average A&P Store of a few years ago. Store-keeping expenses are amazingly low... and hence prices are, too.*

*A&P Super Markets keep their prices low throughout all departments... every day of the week. Thus if you shop for all your food needs in them, you save on your entire grocery bill.

Weekly Food and Marketing Letter by Mrs. Emily M. Lautz for Dixon Telegraph Readers

Do not buy more than your normal amount of food.

That is the message to American homemakers from Paul S. Willis, president of the Associated Grocers Manufacturers of America—and Mr. Willis makes it a watchword in his own family. Uneven buying promptly boosts food prices.

"It is up to Mrs. Consumer," says Mr. Willis, "to maintain food prices normally. If she starts buying heavily or hoarding, she upsets the balance. But if she buys orderly, the system can operate in an orderly fashion."

Mr. Willis feels that "we are not going to see any spiraling in the prices of food." He has confidence in the control exercised by the Washington office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, and he also feels that the homemaker can put a brake on rising prices by seeking cheaper substitutes when some food rockets immoderately.

Statistics show that 3,000,000 more workers are employed than were working one year ago. As family incomes rise, spending on food increases. Up to family spending of $3,000 a year, it is estimated that about 20 to 25 percent of the increased family income turns to better and more varied foods.

And then, of course there's the angle about the army "fighting on its stomach." Addition of 1,250,000 more men to the army and navy has increased food demand—since the army eats more and better food than a similar number of civilians. Army food is higher in nutritive value than the food available to 65 percent of the country's total population, investigators state.

One reason the boys are getting pie like mother used to make—and the vitamins the doctor ordered—is that the dietetic advisor of the Army Quartermaster Corps is a woman. Thousands of women were gratified by the appointment of Miss Mary I. Barber as food consultant in the Office of Production Management, for she and industrious research. She is president of the American Dietetic Association, and is home economics director of a nationally-known food firm, which gave her a leave of absence when Uncle Sam called her into his kitchen.

"Well-balanced meals" describes Army menus, declares Miss Barber, who was a pioneer worker in food conservation during the last World War. She believes in practical, common-sense dietetics and says:

"If you dropped into a camp and ate just one meal, it might not be the perfectly balanced meal. Climate, refrigeration, day of the week—a dozen, a hundred factors may have entered in to prevent the ideal balance. But, if you stay at camp for a week you will, I pledge you, have eaten a proper balance of foods for that seven-day period."

Food has a psychological value for the soldier, Miss Barber is convinced. To quote her again: "In the Army, as in many other places, food has more than a physical value, it has a psychological value—a twofold one, for the boy and his mother. A good meal is a good cure for homesickness. The knowledge that her boy is being well fed does much to relieve a mother's worries."

Each man in the new Army eats about five pounds of food each day, or about one ton a year. The daily ration is 10 ounces more than during the World War and includes all the necessary vitamins, minerals and proteins. New men, fresh from their homes, gain an average of one pound a day on it during their first four days in Army reception centers. Exercise and drill eventually stem this rate of gain.

The Army's daily food bill is around $750,000 and at the end of the year will stand at $273,750,000. An Army public relations man has figured out that one year's supply of coffee for the new Army would allow one cup each to the total populations of the United States, the British empire, China, all the countries absorbed by the axis—and still allow fifty cups to each man in our own Army. The total would be some 1,569,000,000 cups.

The Department of Agriculture finds that soldiers consume two and a half to three more cases of canned vegetables a year than civilians—90 million more cans. Such figures explain rising prices in many common foods which are being commandeered in heavy quantities for the Army.

Interesting to home economists was a demonstration supervised by Miss Barber showing the improvement in Army rations between 1776 and 1941. She devoted extensive research into the basic ration established for American troops as far back as the era of George Washington. Compared to the soldiers who have fought for Uncle Sam since Washington's day, today's Army men are living on the fat of the land, says Miss Barber.

At the demonstration, the private in Revolutionary war dress dined on beef, rice, coffee and bread, while the uniformed 1941 private tested the present regulation meal of soup, beef, string beans, spinach, potatoes, bread, butter, apple pie and coffee.

Pie? Indeed, yes. Pie and chocolate cake have been officially okayed as army desserts. Apple pie is first choice.

FRUITFUL THOUGHTS

Florida Fruit Dressing was featured at the Florida exhibit of the New York World's Fair last year:

4 egg yolks
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1-8 teaspoon paprika
4 tablespoons vinegar
1 teaspoon butter
1 cup cream, whipped
12 marshmallows
1-2 cup pecans, chopped

Beat the egg yolks, add combined sugar and mustard, salt and paprika. Add vinegar slowly. Mix well. Place over hot water and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from fire and add butter. Cool. Cut marshmallows into bits with scissors and combine with nuts and whipped cream; fold into cooled egg mixture. Chill. Serve on fruit salads.

Surprise Tip: If desired, pour mixture into rubber tray and serve cubes of dressing on fruit. Serve 6.

Vitamin Salad
1 cup tart apples, diced
1-2 cup seeded raisins
1 cup celery, cut fine
1 cup grated carrot
6 cherries
Mayonnaise
Lettuce or other greens
Mix together all ingredients except lettuce and cherries. Chill. Serve on crisp greens and garnish with slices of cherries. Serves 6. Whipped cream may be blended with mayonnaise.

TESTED TREATS
Peach Gelatine
2 tablespoons plain gelatine
1-4 cup cold water
1 cup hot water
1-3 cup sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
1 cup orange juice
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 cups sliced peaches, canned or fresh
Soften gelatine in cold water. Add sugar, salt and hot water and stir until dissolved. Add fruit juices. Cool until slightly thickened. Add peaches. Pour in mold and place in refrigerator to chill until set, about 5 hours. (To shorten time set pan in ice water.)
Note: When fresh peaches are used, pour the lemon juice over them immediately after slicing.

Quick Tomato Jam
1 quart tomatoes, peeled and cut
4 cups sugar
Juice and grated rind 1 lemon.
Wash, peel and slice tomatoes. Add sugar, lemon juice and rind and cook over medium heat 30 to 45 minutes until thick. Yields 4 large glasses.
Pink Peach Preserves
Equal parts sugar and peaches, peeled, stoned and sliced.
Medium (about 25) bottle of Marachino cherries and their juice.
Combine sliced peaches, sugar and cut cherries with juice, cooking over medium heat until thick and rich. Stir frequently. Seal with paraffin.

THAT HOLIDAY BAKED HAM

Baked ham is a favorite choice among Labor Day food staples, since it fits so many emergency needs. Whether the outing is a basket picnic, a backyard party or a candle-lit buffet on a screened porch, baked ham can always be counted on for substantial returns.

Pineapple is associated so closely with this popular meat as a flavor blend and attractive garnish that it is wise to try an occasional departure. Why not try the cloved and brown-sugared ham with slices of orange and lemon? If you are still in a mood for adventure, pour a pint of gingerale over the ham and place in the oven, basting frequently with the liquid during baking. When the ham is tender, strain the orange-brown sugar-gingerale gravy and use it as a sauce for the ham.

Baste the smoked pork butt or shoulder with 1 cup of canned grapefruit juice. Hams should be roasted in an uncovered roaster or pan, rind side up, in a very slow oven 275 to 300 degrees F. Roasting varies according to the size of the meat, but the chief variation is in modern methods of curing. Study the directions with the meat or consult your butcher. The usual average is 20 to 30 minutes a pound for the 10 to 12 pound size; half-hams, about 30 minutes a pound. Allow from 40 to 55 minutes a pound for shank ends and picnic butts.

While on the subject of citrus fruit with meat, try a holiday salad combining equal parts of diced cold roast meat (lamb, veal, chicken or duck) and orange sections. To serve 6, allow 2 cups each. For special flavor, marinate with a mixture of 6 tablespoons lemon juice, 3 tablespoons salad oil, 1 teaspoon salt and 1-8 teaspoon pepper before blending with French dressing.

rice with coconut dish, not cooked with the shredded pulp, but boiled in the milk of the coconut. The dish, which originated with a dark-skinned cook in the San Blas Islands, down the coast from Colon, sometimes is highly seasoned for a side dish with fish, or may be sweetened, or covered with a sweet sauce as a pudding.

Present-day bakeshops prepare pastry sticks to be served with soup and salad, but in Colonial days they were called simply "fried bread". When the bread dough was ready for baking, a chunk was cut off and sliced in narrow strips. These were allowed to rise and when puffed were fried in deep hot shortening and served with fresh butter and honey as a breakfast delicacy.

That sharp jelly does not need to wait on the table until the pork shoulder or loin chops are served. Brown chops in their own fat in a pan, season, cover tightly and cook very slowly until tender. That means about 30 minutes for half-inch chops. Lift the chops to a hot platter and add 1-2 cup tart jelly to the hot gravy, heat through and pour the savory juice over the meat.

The homemaker who watches and uses her left-overs wisely saves many a penny. Fish, always a reasonable food, is a double economy if extra fish is provided when a meal is planned for boiled or steamed fish. Flake the unused portion of cooked fish, store it in a covered bowl in the refrigerator and serve it in a rich cream sauce next day with baked potatoes and a green vegetable.

Illinois Employment and Payrolls Increase

Chicago, Aug. 21—(AP)—Illinois payrolls were larger and the number of men working greater in July than in June, the state department of labor reported today, adding that this trend was continuing.

Martin P. Durkin, director, said that reports from 6,482 industrial and business establishments showed an increase of two per cent in employment and 6 per cent in payrolls. Ordinarily, he said, a decline both in employment and payrolls could be expected in July as compared with June.

The report covered 789,833 wage earners in manufacturing, trade, services, public utility, coal mining, and building construction establishments.

Increases both in employment and payrolls have been reported in Illinois each month but one since April, 1940. That exception, Durkin said, was in the normal seasonal drop in January, 1941.

870 Trucks to Carry Ft. Sheridan Troops to Army's Maneuvers

Fort Sheridan, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—Two giant convoys of 870 trucks will transport the 4,250 officers and men of the 40th coast artillery anti-aircraft brigade to the vast September war games in the south.

The convoys, scheduled to depart Monday morning, will pass through several downstate cities en route to Lake Village, Ark., where arrival is planned for Aug. 30.

One convoy of 520 trucks will pass through Elmhurst, Lemont, Joliet, Pontiac, Bloomington, Decatur, Centralia, Carbondale and Cairo. The second, of 350 trucks will roll through Des Plaines, La Grange, Kankakee, Champaign and Mattoon.

Gallagher-Detig Nuptials

Miss Mary K. Gallagher, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gallagher of near Paw Paw and Paul J. Detig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Detig of Steward were united in marriage at 8:30 A. M. on Saturday, August 16 in the St. Theresa Catholic church in Earlville. The Rev. Charles H. Martell officiated at the nuptial mass.

Mid-summer garden flowers decorated the altar for the wedding ceremony. Miss Mary Weiss presided at the organ, and played the wedding march from Wagner's "Lohengrin" for the processional. Miss Weiss played Mendelssohn's march for the recessional. During the wedding services the choir sang, "Ave Maria," "A Prayer," and "Oh Lord I Am Not Worthy."

Miss Doris Gallagher, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Harold Detig, brother of the groom, was the best man.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of ice blue crepe, with black accessories to match. The bride's attendant wore brown silk crepe with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of beautiful gardenias.

Mrs. Dan Gallagher, mother of the bride, wore a dress of soldier blue, for the wedding services. Mrs. Detig wore black and white silk, and both ladies had corsages of pink rose buds.

A wedding breakfast was given in honor of the newlyweds, with close relatives and a few friends invited for the occasion. The breakfast was held immediately following the wedding ceremony at the bride's parents home. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and white, with a wedding cake of three tiers, also decorated in pink and white, gracing the table.

Following the breakfast party the couple left for a wedding trip. The bride's going away dress was of black and white silk crepe with the matching accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the Rollo high school in the class of 1937. Mr. Detig is a graduate of the Steward high school. The groom is employed as a mechanic in the Steward Implement Co., and upon their return from the honeymoon trip the couple will make their home in Steward.

Those from out of town attending the wedding were the Misses Alice, Marguerite, and Anna McLean of Rockford, Mrs. Matt Duffy and daughter Maxine of Belvidere, Miss Mayme McLean of Steward, Jay McLean of Steward, Miss Edna Leuzinger of Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham and daughter Betty of Oak Park, Ralph Schmitz of Mendota, Mrs. Anna Gallagher and daughter Marie, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Schwiager and family of Lee.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. John Etzbach and son of Mendota, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Etzbach and Fred Etzbach were Aurora visitors on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wetzel and son, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanners and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Johnson and Miss Corda Rogers were Rockford visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nevins and daughter Ardis went to Chicago Sunday for the double header between the Cleveland Indians and the White Sox.

Mr. and Mrs. George Amundson and the Misses Alta Mae Marks and Hazel Martin, were Earlville visitors on Sunday evening.

Miss Inez Etzbach of Utica spent Sunday at the Dea McLaughlin home and the Fred Etzbach home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Englehart and son Harold were Sunday visitors at the Fred Wetzel home.

Mrs. Mabel Worsley and friends of Mendota enjoyed a trip to the Brookfield zoo on Sunday.

Mrs. S. Fred Cummings and friend of Mazon were Monday evening callers at the E. N. Gibbs home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clemons were in Polo on Monday forenoon transacting business.

George Moody of Colesburg, Iowa was a caller for the past few days at the A. M. Carnahan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nangle and daughters Rosemary and Elizabeth, Miss Arlyne Adams and Glenn Beemer, went to Chicago on Saturday where they took part in the great Chicago and Music Festival held at Soldier's Field.

Eddie Peabody, Banjo Man, Is Back in Navy

Great Lakes, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—Eddie Peabody, the banjo man and veteran of World War submarine service, is back in the navy again—with gold braid on his uniform.

Now he is Lieutenant Commander Edwin E. Peabody, in charge of bands, music and entertainment at the Great Lakes Naval Training station.

"I'm just the same old Eddie," said the stage, radio and screen musician.

Supervising a military band, a drum and bugle corps and a sailors' chorus, along with arrangements for station entertainment, gives Peabody plenty of desk work, but he still finds time for appearances in the spotlight. Yesterday he led a dance orchestra while secretary of the Navy Knox and visiting governors ate in a mess hall with apprentice seamen.

Appeal to FDR To Halt Alleged Discrimination Against Negro Soldiers

Chicago, Aug. 21—(AP)—Officers of two Negro organizations said today they had appealed to President Roosevelt to halt alleged discrimination and violence against Negro soldiers.

Euclid Louis Taylor, president of the National Bar Association, and Howard Gould, head of the Chicago urban league, wrote the president that numerous complaints of brutality and mistreatment had been received from Negro soldiers.

Most of the complaints, they said, came from Chicago youths enroute to southern maneuvers from Camp Custer, Mich. One told of an attack on Negro soldiers bivouacked near Gurley, Ark., Aug. 11, in which several were beaten with blackjacks and fired upon by Arkansas state police officers.

Gould said that a white army officer who protested during the alleged beating was struck by one of the law enforcement officers.

Taylor asserted that treatment accorded Negro troops by police officers in the south was shattering morale.

Renowned "Elmer" of Legion Conventions Attends State Meet

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—John S. Scoville of Chappell, Neb., who claims at once to be the renowned "Elmer" of American Legion conventions and the champion Legion convention attendee, arrived here today for the four-day state Legion meeting which begins tomorrow.

Scoville, 50, who said he hitchhikes between conventions, declared he was "slipping" a little because he has only visited two departmental gatherings so far this year—those at Nebraska and Indiana. Following the Illinois convention, he said, he intends to go to West Virginia, and thence to Milwaukee for the national convention.

Rainfall Below Normal In State for Last Month

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—Rainfall in Illinois during July averaged 2.75 inches, which is 49 inch below normal, U. S. Meteorologist E. W. Holcomb reported today.

Most rainfall was scattered, Holcomb reported, with Cook, Jo Daviess, Knox, McDonough, Shelby, Monroe, Washington, Randolph, Perry and Jackson counties receiving two to three inches below normal for the month.

Ken Detweiler last night began the defense of his Dixon Country club golf championship when he defeated Kent Stuart, 3 and 2, in their Class A match. In another Class A match Frank Rorer defeated Jim Furlong, 2 and 1.

CLASS A SHUFFLING

Fred Reis, Class A golfer at Plum Hollow who injured his left hand earlier in the week, may not be able to play even in the finals of the club tournament. Fred was to have met Ed Worley in competition, but due to his injury, Ed Rorer will play Worley sometime the early part of next week. Worley, who is now on vacation, drew a bye in the first round of the tournament while Rorer, Class B champion last year, defeated Bill Witzleb in the first round and Fred Reis eliminated his brother, Darrel.

TOURNAMENT PLAY

Mark Smith and Don Bowers, Class C players in the Plum Hollow golf tournament, are even with 43s each at the end of nine holes in their match of the second round. Abe Martin is 17 up on Bert Meeks at the end of nine holes of their class B competition. These matches were started last night.

TROPHIES ON DISPLAY

Frank Randall has returned from Chicago where he bought trophies for the current Plum Hollow club championship. The new trophies are for the winners of classes B and C. They, along with the trophy won in Class A competition by Bill Witzleb last year, are to be on display in the window of Myers and Nolan store. All trophies must be won three years to obtain permanent possession.

60-Day Hunting Season on Ducks Begins October 1

Washington, Aug. 21—(AP)—Secretary of the Interior Ickes yesterday proclaimed a 60 day hunting season, starting October 1 in the northern states, October 16 in intermediate states and November 2 in southern states.

Left unchanged in the 1941 regulations was the 10-day bag limit and the prohibition against use of bait or live decoys. A clause was added, however, forbidding the taking of water fowl by using cattle, horses or miles as blinds.

Ickes ordered a sharp reduction in the shooting season for mourning doves, stating that the number of these birds was found to be "decidedly unsatisfactory." The season in Illinois will be from Sept. 1 to 30.

Another change from last year provided that "no person may take more than three geese in the aggregate of all kinds during any seven consecutive days" in Alexander county, Ill., and two counties in North Carolina and California.

The secretary explained that these special county bag limits "represent an experiment in federal game management which will be closely watched." Records show that in recent years the goose kills in these counties have been altogether too heavy.

"If such local measures as the special bag limits prove successful in solving such problems it obviously will make it possible to regulate the kill on such problem areas without changing general regulations."

PENNANT-RACING CARDINALS BESET BY BAD INJURIES

Terry Moore Is Beaten By Pitcher in Game Yesterday

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The pennant problem in the National League is getting to be "can the St. Louis Cardinals keep going with all their injuries?" instead of "can the Cardinals beat the Brooklyn Dodgers?"

There have been only five games season in which Manager Billy Southworth has had available the complete Cardinal lineup and the club's hospital list is beginning to read like a page out of Who's Who in Baseball.

Topping off a long string of accidents, Terry Moore, the best centerfielder in the league, was struck on the head by a ball pitched by Art Johnson yesterday at Boston. He will be out of action for possibly a week.

Moore is captain of the Redbirds, an invaluable cog in the club, and a real Gas-Houser with the heart of a lion.

His loss would be catastrophic to many clubs and may be to the Cardinals. But if it were an isolated case, it would be accepted as one of the breaks of the game. Instead it came just ten days after slugging Enos Slaughter, the Cards' rightfielder, was lost for the rest of the season with a broken shoulder.

Win Doubleheader Yesterday

In spite of this procession of trouble the Cardinals have kept right on coming and yesterday they swept a doubleheader from the Braves 2-0 and 3-2. Ernie White, the Cards' great young left-hander, pitched a six-hit shutout in the first game for his 15th victory and Howard Pollet, 20-year-old southpaw just brought up from the Texas league, pitched a four-hitter for his major league debut in the nightcap.

The double triumph enabled the Cards to climb within a game and a half of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who were given a 7-6 handout by the Pittsburgh Pirates for Brooklyn's sixth straight win.

The Dodgers exploded four runs in the first inning, then were overtaken by a six-run rally of the Buccaneers in the third, when Bob Elliott hit a three-run homer. After that the Dodgers threatened often, and tied the score on Pete Reiser's homer in the seventh, but the winning run crossed the plate in the ninth inning when Rightfielder Elliott dropped a fly ball with the bases loaded and two out. It was Pittsburgh's fifth error of the day.

The Cincinnati Reds reinforced their third place position by shutting out the poor Phillies twice, 2-0 and 3-0. John Vander Meer allowed only three hits and won his own game with a double in the opener, his 14th success, and Elmer (The Great) Riddle kept six blows scattered for his 14th triumph in the nightcap.

The Chicago Cubs cut loose with a 16-hit attack as Vallie Eaves kept eight hits spaced to beat the New York Giants 9-4.

In the American League the New York Yankees were squeezed out 1-0 by the Detroit Tigers as Tommy Bridges pitched two-hit ball for ten innings in one of the finest performances of his long career.

The Chicago White Sox chopped another game off the Yankees' ample lead as John Rigney nailed the Philadelphia Athletics 9-0 for the third shutout in two days by a Sox pitcher and Rigney's second shutout in two starts.

The collapsing Cleveland Indians dropped their 14th game in 15 decisions 6-3 to the Washington Senators.

Ted Williams hit two home runs, giving him a total of five in two days and 28 for the season, but his Boston Red Sox were beaten in both ends of a doubleheader by the St. Louis Browns, 11-9, and 4-3. Each team made a dozen hits in the first game, but the Browns grouped five runs in the first inning to keep ahead. The second session was a ten-inning affair finally won on John Berardino's squeeze bunt.

GALAN SAYS HE'LL QUIT BEFORE HE'LL GO BACK TO MINOR LEAGUE BALL

Los Angeles, Aug. 21—(AP)—Augie Galan, Chicago Cub outfielder traded to Los Angeles, telephoned President David P. Fleming of the Angels that he would quit baseball rather than come back to the minors.

Fleming said Galan pleaded last night for a chance to make a deal with another major league club. He told Galan he was needed immediately by the Angels, who are sixth in the Pacific Coast league, but offered to help the outfielder get a big league berth at the season's end.

Fleming traded Emil Kush, young pitcher on option with Tulsa of the Texas League, for Galan yesterday. Kush is to report next spring.

The Blues won the nightcap, 7 to 5, with Quinn and Stencil homering for Madison.

New Basketball Coach Is Named For Amboy High

"Coach Clem W. Thompson" — that's a name you'll hear a lot about this winter when the basketball season begins and Coach Thompson takes over his new duties at Amboy Township high school.

Thompson, who comes from Mount Sterling, Ill., has been hired by the board of education of School District No. 166 to replace Coach Bill Welty who has resigned to accept a position at Waterloo, Ia. West High.

Captain of the basketball team at Knox college during the 1937-38 season, Coach Thompson comes to Amboy highly recommended, for the past three years he has been a teacher and coach at Mount Sterling high school.

He was graduated from Seymour high school at Payson, Ill., in 1933 and received his bachelor of arts degree from Knox college at Galesburg in 1938. He received his master's degree from the University of Illinois this summer.

During his career at Knox college he was a member of Scabbard & Blade, athletic board of control and a track letterman.

Coach Thompson is married and he and Mrs. Thompson will reside in the Frank Branigan residence on North Jones avenue in Amboy which is now occupied by Principal and Mrs. O. W. Funkhouser. The Funkhousers will soon move into the W. L. DeWeese house on West Division street.

Billows Hopes to Break Jinx in Amateur Meet

Chicago, Aug. 21—(AP)—Little Ray B.Gillows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., is hoping this is the year he'll be able to crack the jinx that's been following him in the last six National Amateur golf championships—but if he doesn't he won't be able to say he didn't have his game ready for the big test starting Monday at Omaha.

The eastern expert—who learned the game's fundamentals in his native Racine, Wis.—today opposed Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., for the first annual Great Lakes amateur championship at the Knollwood club. And the way Billows qualified for this title shot indicated he might improve on a National Amateur performance which has seen him become a finalist twice in the last four years.

Billows yesterday gained a measure of revenge for the 7 and 5 licking handed him in the 1939 National Amateur by Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, Wash. Billows whipped Ward 5 and 4 yesterday, ramming down long putts at decisive holes to stop Ward's bid at making it a fight.

In the afternoon Billows had just as easy going, defeating Art Sweet of Chicago 4 and 3.

Stranahan, trans-Mississippi champion also eligible for next week's big amateur show, defeated Ted Payeur, Northwestern university golf coach, 4 and 2, in the quarter finals. Then the Toledo expert scored a decisive 4 and 3 win over Wilford Wehrle of Chicago, 1940 National Amateur semi-finalist.

Sweet reached the semi-finals with a 1 up victory over Mike Benecicuto of Racine, Wis., while Wehrle's quarter-final win was over John Barnum of Chicago, 3 and 2.

VETERAN PRO HAS SEVERAL CHOICES FOR '41 NATIONAL AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 21—(AP)—Stanley Davies, the husky English-born professional who brought Johnny Goodman up from the cadet ranks and had the sure-fire hunch his protégé would win the 1941 U. S. Open title, has several top choices for the 1941 National Amateur golf championship, including his own Johnny.

"Really, it is an amazing field, and I couldn't possibly name you the winner this time," said Davies as he took time off from his duties of getting the field club ready for the opening shots Monday.

"One thing is certain," said the veteran professional, "the fellow who wins must be a straight shooter. There'll be no chance for scrambling on this layout."

The field club course has been stretched to 6,745 yards for the tournament.

Sports Roundup

BY SID FEDER

(Pinch-Hitting For Eddie Brietz)

New York, Aug. 21—(AP)—(The Special News Service)—You hear the strangest things... like the Saratoga story that Eddie Arcaro's perfume is one of the reasons he and Whirlaway get along so well... Every time he's been on Whirlaway, Eddie's used a lot of it, and when little Wacko gets a whiff, he forgets all about running crooked... Then there's the whisper going 'round the American League that Bobby Feller's depending so much on his curve these days because he's lost or mislaid—his fast one.

Old-timers around St. Louis watched Howie Pollet check in with a four-hitter, and reeled a guy named Dizzy Dean bowed into big leagues with a three-hit whitewash job 'way back in 1939... And right in the middle of a hot flag fight too.

How-They-Do-It-Dept.

The White Sox, last in club batting in the American League, seventh in fielding, lowest in homer hitting... Right now are the hottest club in the loop.

Don't believe a word of that yarn about Yankee Coach Art Fletcher getting the job as Detroit manager... He's turned down a lot better bossing jobs than the Tigers can offer... The Dodgers, who raised that beef about extra men on the Cubs roster, have it right in their own laps now... And Judge Landis has given 'em ten days to cut from 26 to 23... When you're talking about eastern grid prospects don't overlook Navy... The word is the sailors are really loaded this time.

Today's Guest Star

Al Buck, New York Post: Joe and Marva Louis are coming east on a second honeymoon... And all the Bomber has to worry about now is what he calls "That man with the comic punch".

The Dodgers don't believe in the two-for-one idea... They've made fewer double plays than any other major-league club - less than 100... And a Cleveland fan writes that the citizens there didn't quit on the Indians... "They quit on us"... Jack Sharkey is around refereeing rassling matches again... and the reason Hannah Williams hasn't rejoined Jack Dempsey yet is because she's been ailing... Did you know Howard Pollet, the ace of the Cards, lost his dad in 1936 - and had to help mamma support two kid brothers?... Larry MacPhail says if Larry French gives the Dodgers just ten good innings - Without too many bad ones - the Dodgers'll figure the investment was worth it.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press)

Tommy Bridges, Tigers—Shut out Yankees 1-0 on two hits in ten inning pitching duel.

Ernie White and Howard Pollet, Cardinals—Former pitched six-hit shutout and latter made major league debut with four-hit hurling to beat Braves.

John Vander Meer and Elmer Riddle, Reds—Pitched double shutout against Phils, former allowing three hits and latter six.

John Rigney, White Sox—Blanked Athletics on three singles for Chicago's ninth straight triumph.

Walter Masterson, Senators—Replaced Arne Anderson with bases loaded and two out in ninth inning and put down Indians' uprising to save victory.

Vallie Eaves, Cubs—Kept eight hits scattered for victory over the Giants.

Pete Reiser, Dodgers—His fly upset Pirates for two runs in the first inning and he added homer to tie score in seventh.

Foy Coblentz and John Berardino, Browns—Former figured prominently in batting attack that won first game against Red Sox and hit double with bases loaded in nightcap, when Berardino won with squeeze bunt in the tenth inning.

Manufacturers of railroad equipment in the U. S. built 26,180 flat cars in 1939, as compared with 90,754 in 1937.

NEWELL-MANN MATCH TOPS QUARTERFINALS OF WOMEN'S WESTERN GOLF TOURNAMENT

Chicago, Aug. 21—(AP)—Mrs. Frank Newell, the former Elizabeth Hicks, of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Russell Mann of Omaha, Neb., met today in the feature match of the quarterfinal round of the Women's Western closed championship tournament.

Mrs. Newell was western medal play derby winner in 1939 and 1940 while Mrs. Mann, former Iowa and Wisconsin state champion, won the Women's Western in 1935 after having been runnerup in 1932. Mrs. Newell advanced yesterday at the expense of another Long Beach entrant, Peggy Rutledge, 6 and 5, while Mrs. Mann won by the same score over Jeanne Cline of Bloomington, Ill.

All round-of-eight matches were scheduled for this afternoon. Previous rounds have been in the morning.

Eleanor Dudley Loses

Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., spilled Eleanor Dudley of Chicago yesterday with a 1 up victory. Miss Dudley and Mrs. Mann were co-medalist Monday. Miss Wall's opponent today was Rena Nelson, another Chicagoan, who reached the quarter-finals with a 7 and 6 victory over Mrs. Fred Uihlein of Milwaukee, Wis.

Georgia Tainter of Fargo, N. D., was matched with Mrs. J. Calvert Shorb of South Bend, Ind. today.

In addition to the match between Mrs. Newell and Mrs. Mann in the lower half, Marion Miley, the Lexington, Ky., star, was paired with Mrs. Lawrence Selz of Chicago.

Crappies Put in River As Part of Restocking Plans

Federal conservationists from Fairport, Ia. arrived in Dixon this morning and placed about 5,000 crappies in Rock river at the foot of Ottawa avenue. The activity is a part of the Evening Telegraph's program to restock the stream with fish native to its waters, and the conservationists to-day represented the second which has been received from the federal hatchery at Fairport this season.

Three members of Boy Scout troop 89 were on hand to assist in the placing of the fish in the river, Bill and Dick Worley and Dick Wagner. For their interest in the project they will be eligible to receive special conservation awards in Scouting. The fish were from three to four inches in length and will be of legal size for the angler's hooks next spring.

McKechnie Says Reds Are Still In Pennant Race

Philadelphia, Aug. 21—(AP)—Deacon Bill McKechnie agrees it sounds funny to say his Cincinnati World Champions are still in the National League pennant race but declares "we believe that's the case. History repeats, you know."

Ten and a half games behind the pace-setting Dodgers, the Reds apparently are hoping for a miracle to aid their belated bid but they're not distressed.

They point nimbly to 1939 when they were winging in front with a 12½ game lead. July closed its books and the Reds reached September all out of breath with snorts of the Cardinals on their neck.

"We won the pennant by two games but it took heroic doing," declares McKechnie. "Remember how Billy Myers snote a home run against the Dodgers and we won out in the 10th."

"After that nobody could stop us. We played 700 ball and came through, beating the Cards in the final critical series. Baseball, I always say, is a most uncertain pastime."

Then there's the mad rush of the Cubs in '38. They got hot in late August and September, steamed over the folding Pirates and copped the pennant as Gabby Hartnett hit homers after dusk and Prexy Bill Benswanger of the Bucs lay swooning and unnoticed in the aisle.

Of such things are made the stretch duels in the National circuit and knowing this, the Reds are taking comfort.

PLAY TO BEGIN TONIGHT WITH FINALS SUNDAY

Defending Champ Ward Smith Is Seeded No. 1 In Annual Event

With Ward Smith, defending champion, seeded Number One, the Dixon singles tennis tournament will get underway tonight at the high school courts and the finals will be played on Sunday.

Pairings for the tournament were made last night in a meeting at the courts where Skip Shipper of Polo, a neutral tennisman, drew the names out of a hat.

In the early matches the best of three sets will determine the winners, while in the finals the best three of five will be the rule.

Other seeded players in the tournament are George Covert, former city titleholder, No. 2; Dick Joslyn, many times runner-up, No. 3; and Alan Wiennan, former North Central conference titleholder, No. 4.

Smith will draw a bye in the first round and will meet the winner of the Harold Peterson-Bill Bowden match. Another upper bracket match pits Earl Slagle, Jr. against Robert McNamera and Alan Wiennan draws a first round bye.

In the lower bracket Dick Joslyn draws a bye. Charles Kearney will meet the winner of the M. M. Rosenberger-Phil Rielly match. Bob Preston and Haskell Hall meet in the first round and the winner will play George Covert.

A total of 12 players are listed in the tournament this year and handsome trophies are promised to the winner and runnerup.

TRAPSHOOTERS BEGIN RACE FOR DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Society Queen's Mansion To Be Made Into School

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The stately mansion on Lake Shore Drive where the late Edith Rockefeller McCormick reigned as queen of Chicago society soon will become a school building.

Leasing of the 31 room structure for use as the Bateman school, a private institution for primary grade pupils, was announced today by real estate firms.

During her reign as social arbiter, Mrs. McCormick entertained statesmen, leaders in the world of art and literature, industrial titans and European royalty at the huge gray stone mansion.
